

We are the most read magazine dedicated to building a house for a family and adjustment of its interior and surroundings.

- We endeavour to have complex and timeless approach to this issue and we notice all phases a builder and a house owner can encounter.
- The title serves as a source of valuable information and practical advice for all who consider living in a house or they already live in it.
- We follow new trends in world design and make contacts with front world architects and designers. We do not take over articles, we negotiate directly with front studios, therefore you can find exclusive materials about top ateliers and their realizations.
